CMO 2020 Ministry Guidelines

The following is a list of the basic guidelines by which all CMO Team Members must abide while serving overseas with Euro Team Outreach. Violation of these guidelines may result in immediate discharge from the project.

1. Team members must conduct themselves in a professional and Christ-like manner at all times.
2. Team members must follow all instructions given by ETO staff.
3. Team members must participate in all team meetings and ministry functions.
4. Team members must be punctual to all meetings and ministry functions.
5. Team members must maintain good personal hygiene.
6. Team members must dress neatly and avoid sloppy or faddish clothing.
7. Team members must demonstrate kindness and Godly attitudes towards their fellow team members.
8. Team members may not wear earrings, necklaces, or other jewelry while serving with ETO.
9. Team members must use the King James Version of the Bible when participating in group activities.
ETO uses the King James Version exclusively in English-language ministry. We also recognize that believers hold a variety of views regarding the Bible-version issue, and we respect your right to read from whichever Bible version you choose. However, in order to avoid confusion and maintain continuity, we ask that you bring a KJV Bible for use during team functions. You are, of course, welcome to use a different version for personal reading or study.
10. Team members may not purchase or consume alcoholic beverages at any time while serving with ETO.
The issue of alcohol consumption remains controversial amongst believers, and we recognize that CMO team members may hold opposing doctrinal viewpoints in this area. Therefore, in order to demonstrate deference in the spirit of Romans 14:14-17, we ask that all CMO team members refrain from all forms of alcohol while serving with ETO.
11. Team members may not claim any denominational affiliation when speaking with nationals.
We recognize that team members come from various denominational backgrounds. However, experience has shown that while ministering in Ukraine, denominational lines close more doors to ministry than they open. Thus, when speaking with nationals, all ETO team members are expected to claim simple allegiance to the Lord Jesus Christ and belief in the Bible as the Word of God.
12. Team members must demonstrate financial responsibility.
All team members are expected to cover their own food, travel, medical, and any other personal expenses which they may incur during their service with Euro Team Outreach. Team members are also required to pay a one-time Operations Fee to help cover costs such as housing, utilities, etc. (See page 16 of the CMO 2020 Info Pack for details.) In case financial difficulties arise during the project, ETO staff should be notified immediately.

After you have carefully read the above guidelines, please sign your name in the space below. Your signature indicates your complete understanding of the CMO 2020 Ministry Guidelines, and your willingness to fully comply with these guidelines during your service time overseas. If you need further clarification regarding any of these guidelines, please email us at info@euroteamoutreach.org.

Euro Team Outreach Statement of Faith

*The following statement is a summary of the Biblical doctrines which we hold as fundamental to the Christian faith.
To view this document online with clickable Scripture reference links, please visit* www.euroteamoutreach.org/doctrine

Scripture

We believe that the sixty-six books of the King James Holy Bible constitute the perfectly preserved, inspired, and infallible Word of God to English speaking people. As such, we hold it to be the highest authority for our lives.

Furthermore, we believe that all Scripture is profitable to us today for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness.

- 2 Tim. 3:16
- 2 Peter 1:20-21
- Proverbs 30:5
- Hebrews 4:12

God

We believe in the One True and Living God, Creator of all that is. We believe that He is Father, Son, and Holy Ghost - three distinct persons and yet one God.

God is the Just Judge of all the universe, "...keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty." (Exodus 34:7)

- 1 John 5:7
- 1 Timothy 2:5
- Deuteronomy 6:4
- Romans 11:33-36
- Isaiah 45:5-8

Sin

We believe that sin is the willful act of transgressing the eternal Law of God, which Law is inherent within every human being.

- 1 John 3:4
- James 4:17
- Romans 1:18
- Romans 5:13

Man

We believe that man was created by God, in God's image, for God's glory, and given freedom to choose between good and evil. In the garden of Eden, Adam made a choice to turn away from God and follow Satan. That day, through the offense of one man, all men were separated from God, and from all the blessings of His divine presence.

We furthermore believe that while all are separated from God because of Adam's sin, they do not bear responsibility for his decision. Adam acted alone. Although separation is universal, guilt is personal, based on the daily choices of the individual. God holds every person individually accountable for his own actions, inasmuch as every person has retained his free will to choose between good and evil, guided by his own conscience. When a sinner is condemned to hell, he is not condemned for the state in which he was born, but because he chose to follow evil, as did his father Adam.

Finally, we believe that all have sinned through personal choice with the exception of One. Man's only hope of reconciliation to God is through faith in the perfect sacrifice of Jesus Christ.

- Genesis 2:1-3:24
- Romans 3:23
- Romans 5:12-21
- Romans 9:11
- 1 Corinthians 15:21-22, 39-58
- Ezekiel 18:1-32
- Ecclesiastes 7:29
- Psalm 33:15

Jesus Christ

We believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, God manifest in the flesh, the Creator of Heaven and Earth, the Savior of all those who believe on His Name. He is the only Mediator between God and man.

- 1 Timothy 2:5
- John 1:1-3, 14
- Isaiah 9:6
- 1 Timothy 3:16

Salvation

We believe that through His love for the world, God has provided one way for sinners to be cleansed from their sin, and thus delivered from impending damnation in hell. Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life, and died on a Roman cross, shedding His innocent blood as a substitute for sinners. This blood was then placed on the heavenly mercy seat before God as the final atonement for the sins of all mankind.

Any person, who turns from faith in his own dead works, to faith in the finished work of the Lord Jesus Christ will be delivered from condemnation in hell, and granted eternal life. At the moment of salvation, God imputes the perfect righteousness of Jesus Christ to the sinner, translating him from the kingdom of darkness into the Kingdom of God. From that moment forward, he is no longer counted a sinner, but a saint and a joint-heir with Jesus Christ.

We furthermore believe that this salvation is completely separate from any work (past or future) of the individual, and can only be obtained through faith.

- John 3:16
- Romans 10:8-11
- Romans 4:4-5
- Titus 3:4-5
- Acts 16:30-31

Security of the Believer

We hold that all believers, and only believers, have eternal security, being kept by the power of their Savior, Jesus Christ.

- Romans 8:38-39
- John 10:27-29
- Ephesians 1:13
- Hebrews 3:14
- Ephesians 4:30
- Colossians 1:21-23

Sanctification of the Believer

We believe that sanctification — that is the separation of a believer to holy living — is by faith in the finished work of Jesus Christ. All believers, regardless of their understanding or experience, are forever free from all sin based on the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

We furthermore hold that all believers, based on their freedom in Christ and the clear commands of Scripture, are both able and obligated to walk in complete holiness before God, and to refrain from all acts of sin.

- Colossians 2:6-14
- Romans 6:1-23
- Romans 7:4-6
- Romans 8:1-4
- Hebrews 12:14
- 2 Corinthians 5:17
- 2 Corinthians 7:1
- 2 Corinthians 13:11

Future Judgment

We believe that there is an appointed day in which every man and woman will stand before God and give account of their deeds, whether good or evil. The righteous will be rewarded with life eternal, and the wicked will be damned to everlasting torment in the lake of fire.

- Hebrews 9:27
- Matthew 25:31-46
- Matthew 7:1-2
- Matthew 13:49-50
- Revelation 20:11-15

Creation

We believe that the universe was created in six, literal, twenty-four hour days by the Word of God, in accordance with the account given in Genesis chapter one.

- Genesis 1:1-31
- John 1:1-5
- Hebrews 11:3
- Hebrews 3:1-4
- Psalm 102:24-27
- Isaiah 45:5-8, 12

The Holy Spirit

We believe that the Holy Spirit (Holy Ghost) is God Almighty, the third person of the God-head. He is the Comforter promised by Jesus when He was with His disciples, sent into the world to teach us the ways of God. The Holy Spirit indwells every true believer from the moment of salvation.

- Romans 8:9-11, 14-16, 26
- John 14:26

The Church

We believe that the Church is the body of our Lord Jesus Christ, made up of all those who have believed on His Name.

We furthermore believe that the Church operates in the world as multiple, autonomous groups of believers, who assemble for the purpose of fellowship, teaching, worship, and edification. We believe that the Church is called to holiness, and is commissioned to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ to every creature.

- Colossians 1:18, 24
- Ephesians 5:23
- 1 Thessalonians 2:14
- 2 Corinthians 8:18
- 1 Corinthians 12:28

Baptism

We believe that all those who believe on the Name of Jesus Christ are baptized spiritually into His death. Following this conversion, believers are commanded to be physically baptized (immersed) into water as an outward testimony of their death, burial, and resurrection with Jesus. We believe that while water baptism is commanded in Scripture, is not a requisite to salvation.

- Matthew 28:19
- Acts 8:36-38
- Romans 6:3-7
- 1 Corinthians 12:13

Heaven

We believe that heaven is a literal place where God dwells, and where believers will one day be united with Him. It is a place of indescribable beauty, free of all evil and sadness.

- Revelation 21:10-27
- Isaiah 66:1
- Revelation 21:4
- Isaiah 25:8
- John 14:2-3
- Revelation 22:3-5

Hell

We believe that hell is a literal place of eternal judgment and torment created by God for the devil and his angels. All men and women who have sinned against God, and who refuse to believe the Gospel of Jesus Christ, will be condemned to hell without hope of deliverance.

On judgment day, the dead in hell will be raised, judged for their deeds, and cast into a lake burning with fire and brimstone. The smoke of their torment will rise up forever before the Lamb of God, whose mercy they rejected.

- Psalm 9:17
- Matthew 5:22, 29-30
- Matthew 10:28
- Mark 9:43-45
- Luke 16:19-31
- Revelation 1:18
- Revelation 20:14-15
- Revelation 19:20
- Revelation 20:10
- Revelation 21:8
